

Mr Maidul Islam,
Brasenose College,
Oxford

Ref.
4 December 2007

Dear Mr Islam,

Change of Programme of Study

I am pleased to inform you that permission has been granted for you to transfer from:

Division of Humanities
Department of History
D.Phil. in History

to

Division of Social Sciences
Department of Politics and International Relations
D.Phil. in Politics

The following supervision arrangements have been approved:

Dr Nandini Gooptu, St Antony's College

The Graduate Studies Committee has approved transfer to Probationer Research Status and you may continue to hold this new status, subject to the relevant decrees, until the end of Trinity Term 2009.

You are required to Transfer from PRS to D.Phil. Status by the end of Trinity Term 2009, so you are strongly advised to submit your application for transfer during Hilary 2009 to allow sufficient time for the assessment process to be completed. Details of the application process may be found in the Notes of Guidance for Graduate Students and Supervisors in Politics.

For information concerning fees, residence, and other matters you are advised to refer to the Examination Decrees and Regulations of the University and any subject-specific Notes of Guidance.

Please note that if you are in receipt of financial assistance from a UK funding body, or similar authority, it is your own responsibility to inform that body of any change in your status which might affect the continuance of your award.
